

LIGHTWORKERS LUNCH

My Gratitude Constellation

mapping the lights already in your sky

Name _____

Date _____

● Draw your constellation

In each star, write something you're grateful for. Join them with lines — your own constellation.

● The brightest star

Pick one from your sky. Why does it shine so brightly right now?

● A light I could be for someone else this month

Gratitude doesn't change what you have — it changes what you see.